FOREWORD

The Florida Artist Group is pleased to have the opportunity once more of presenting for circuit the work of twenty-eight artists whose paintings were selected from the Thirteenth Annual Exhibition held in Daytona Beach in April, 1962. The juror, Gibson A. Danes, Dean of the School of Art and Architecture of Yale University, is well known in the art world as a painter, art historian, author, lecturer and editor. At the Symposium Dean Danes gave an illuminating address on "The Externality and Internality of Painting". It is a pleasure to add his name to our list of distinguished jurors of the past:

Robert Parsons in Gainesville, 1950
 Bartlett Hayes, Jr., in Gainesville, 1951
 Lamar Dodd in Clearwater, 1952
 Homer Saint-Gaudens in Sarasota, 1953
 Wilbur David Peat in Daytona Beach, 1954
 Thomas M. Beggs in West Palm Beach, 1955
 Herman Warner Williams, Jr., in Bradenton, 1956
 Robert B. Hale in Winter Park, 1957
 Fred Conway in Tampa, 1958
 Thomas Tibbs in Miami, 1959
 Donald M. Mattison in Bradenton, 1960
 John Taylor and Andree Ruellan in West Palm Beach, 1961

The Florida Artist Group is unique in the respect that it has as a prime interest the circuiting of the paintings of outstanding Florida artists to other parts of the nation. The organization is a non-profit, educational organization with a select membership of one hundred and twenty-five as a maximum. Only artists residing in Florida are eligible. The group consists of practicing artists who have gained recognition nationally or on a state-wide or regional basis and whose work contributes significantly to its exhibitions. Through the years these circuit shows have been exhibited from coast to coast in the United States and Canada. Each year a Symposium and Exhibition is held in a different city in Florida. Proceedings of the Symposium, catalogues of the exhibition and circuit show are available upon request. Inquiries concerning the program and activities of the organization and the circuit show may be addressed to Dr. Robert E. Carson, president, 707 N.W. 14th Ave., Gainesville, Florida.
