FOREWORD

The Florida Artist Group takes pride in presenting for circuit the work of twenty-seven Florida artists whose paintings were selected from the Fourteenth Annual Exhibition held in St. Augustine in April, 1963. The juror was Carl Holty, visiting professor of painting at the University of Louisville, Louisville, Kentucky. Mr. Holty, painter of international stature, brought a warm note of understanding coupled with a scintillating sense of humor to the occasion of the main address of the symposium. We add his name with a distinct sense of pleasure to the list of distinguished jurors of past years:

- Robert Parsons in Gainesville, 1950
- Bartlett Hayes, Jr., in Gainesville, 1951
- Lamar Dodd in Clearwater, 1952
- Homer Saint-Gaudens in Sarasota, 1953
- Wilbur David Peat in Daytona Beach, 1954
- Thomas M. Beggs in West Palm Beach, 1955
- Herman Warner Williams, Jr., in Bradenton, 1956
- Robert B. Hale in Winter Park, 1957
- Fred Conway in Tampa, 1958
- Thomas Tibbs in Miami, 1959
- Donald M. Mattison in Bradenton, 1960
- John Taylor and Andree Ruellan in West Palm Beach, 1961
- Gibson A. Danes in Daytona Beach, 1962

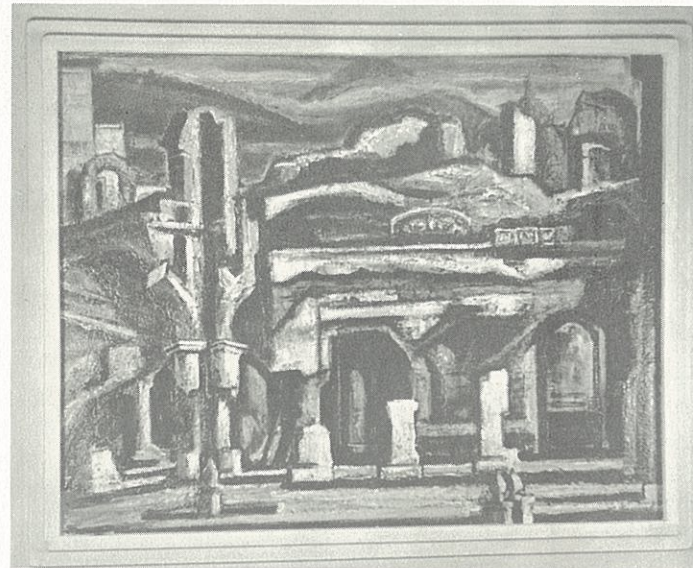

The Florida Artist Group is unique in the respect that it has as a prime interest the circuiting of the paintings of outstanding Florida artists to other parts of the nation. The organization is a non-profit, educational organization with a select membership of one hundred and twenty-five as a maximum. Only artists residing in Florida are eligible. The group consists of practicing artists who have gained recognition nationally or on a state-wide or regional basis and whose work contributes significantly to its exhibitions. Through the years these circuit shows have been exhibited from coast to coast in the United States and Canada. Each year a Symposium and Exhibition is held in a different city in Florida. Proceedings of the Symposium, catalogues of the exhibition and circuit show are available upon request. Inquiries concerning the program and activities of the organization and the circuit show may be addressed to Fred Messersmith, President, Art Department, Stetson University, DeLand, Florida.
